Last Meeting: December 4, 2002 - Toledo 64-57

'Dons Dominate in Exhibition

(11/1/06) The IPFW Women's Basketball team started of the 2006-07 season with an exhibition game against Indiana Tech. The 'Dons dominated the Warriors, defeating them 73-36.

The Mastodons started the first half with a 6-0 run and took it to 17-7 with 8:39 left in the half. A layup by Tina Moen would put the 'Dons up by 16 with 4:21 left in the first. IPFW finished the half with a 13 point lead, 30-17.

IPFW came out firing in the second, taking their lead to 17 at 14:44. Natalie Roberts went on a seven point run to take the 'Dons lead to 28 with 9:23 left in the game. IPFW kept the 30 point lead going with just over seven minutes left. A made three pointer by Hilary O'Connell took IPFW to a 39 point lead with 22 seconds left. Indiana Tech hit one last layup to finish the game 73-36, with a 37 point differential.

Nanyamka Moore led all scorers with 12 points. She was 5 of 9 from the field, adding eight rebounds.

Ashley Johnson connected for 11 points, going 4-9 from the field and perfect at the line, 3-3. Johnson added three steals.

Moen just hit double digits with 10 points in her 14 minutes on the court.

Samantha Edwards was the only 'Don with double digit rebounds. She finished with 10 boards and nine points.

Juliane Höhne led in steals with five. Johnna Lewis-Carlisle matched Johnson's steals with three.

The Warriors were led by Porsche Reaves with 10 points and Cherish Coley with 11 boards.

Zuppe Signs with Mastodons

(11/9/06)IPFW Women's Basketball Head Coach Chris Paul has announced the signing of Jordan Zuppe to a national letter of intent for the 2007-08 season.

Zuppe is a native of Aliquippa, Pa. and will graduate from Hopewell in the spring. She is currently a point and shooting guard for Hopewell girl's basketball team which won the PIAA Class AAA state semifinals last season. The Vikings posted a 30-3 record last year and took their first WPIAL and PIAA titles in team history. Hopewell had a 25 game win streak in 2005-06.

Zuppe averaged 11.6 ppg, 4.3 assists/game, 3.1 rpg and 2.0 steals/game in her junior campaign. She has been a starter since the season opener of her freshman year and has 885 career points. Zuppe is a two-sport athlete. She plays golf as well, although Hopewell does not have a girls team. Zuppe is on the boys team and averages around a 45 per nine-hole round. She currently holds a 3.7 GPA on a four point scale.
