

15th Annual FACET Associate Faculty & Lecturers Conference

Friday, October 15th and Saturday, October 16th, 2010

This year's conference theme is "To Content and Beyond: Connecting with Today's Student". Speakers from across Indiana will share their teaching strategies, techniques and tips with the Associate Faculty and Continuing Lecturers. A variety of workshops and discussion forums will offer practical strategies and give faculty a chance to exchange their best practices with each other.

The 2010 conference is designed for continuing lecturers and part-time faculty in any department or discipline. Participants should be committed to the promotion and enhancement of teaching excellence among faculty on their respective campuses.

This year's conference begins on Friday, October 15, 2010 at the Sheraton Indianapolis City Center Hotel located in downtown Indianapolis, at 31 West Ohio Street, with Conference check-in to begin around 4:00 PM on the 21st floor of The Sheraton. The schedule of events for this conference is not yet available. It is slated to be online soon and will be available at <http://www.facet.iupui.edu/aflc.php>.

FACET covers all on-site conference costs, which include registration, meals, parking and shared lodging. The VCAA will pay for travel via university vehicle for up to 14 participants. If there are more than 14 who wish to attend, preference will go to those who did not attend last year.
