<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ITCO Report on Index to Instructional Technology</td>
<td>Gail Rathbun distributed copies of a report on the group’s progress in creating a web-based support guide. Arrangements are being made to announce the service at the fall convocation. The OAA will provide the needed funding.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Update on IPFW-Share via Alfresco</td>
<td>Jeff Nowak demonstrated the use of the Alfresco file-sharing service. The project was funded by CELT and developed in cooperation with ITS. It supports student collaborations and uses regular IPFW login processes. The service is to be moved to a virtual server and be linked through the myIPFW portal. “Outside” members can be supported by giving them user names and passwords specific to this system.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Establishing a Mac Lab</td>
<td>Bob Kostrubanic reported that plans are being made for the Mac Lab and for the lab to be located in NF B73. This will require an update to the PC Demonstration Classroom Scheduling Policy. Bob will follow-up with Patrick to review actual usage of the Demonstration Classroom service. STEPS classes are held in KT 116, not in the Neff lab. The committee approved conversion of B73 to be the Mac Lab, with scheduling of classes and special uses to be done by the registrar’s office. The committee also approved updating of the Demonstration Classroom scheduling policy to reflect these changes.</td>
