7. New business: There was no new business.

8. Committee reports "for information only": There were no committee reports.

9. The general good and welfare of the University:

   L. Wright-Bower asked Dennis Marshall, chair of Nominations and Elections, to report on the status of elections.

   D. Marshall: I've gotten two ballots so far: one for IU Speaker and one for Presiding Officer.
P. Hamburger: The Executive Committee decided that the election for the Strategic Planning and Review Council (SPARC) should be conducted by the Nominations and Elections Committee of the Senate. SPARC is not a Senate committee; it is a chancellor's committee. It does not mean that we approve or disapprove the long-term strategic plan. The committee will solicit nominations for this committee from the Voting Faculty and all Voting Faculty will vote. The solicitation will go out on Friday afternoon.

M. Nusbaumer: Is this beginning next year?

P. Hamburger: It will begin next year.

M. Nusbaumer: Our web page for the Fort Wayne Senate says "Search IPFW's Faculty Senate Web Space." We are not a faculty senate.

M. Wartell: Credit hours are up 12.2%. That will help us significantly with our budget problems. Headcount is up about 10%. In terms of credits hours, we are 7,000 hours above the record that was set in 1992. So, you are doing an incredible job.

If you have read negative things about housing in the newspaper, don't get very upset yet. We intend to proceed through the President of Purdue University next week and the Board of Trustees on February 9. That project is on schedule now and we hope to continue it on schedule for opening in the fall of 2003.

D. Oberstar: I didn't read anything about a bump in the road.

M. Wartell: The Journal Gazette reported that the IUPUI project was on the agenda of the State Budget Committee. There were a couple of comments by legislators that they felt that all such projects should be voted on by the entire legislature. Our project requires no state funding and causes no risk to the state. The State Budget Committee does have to approve the lease of the land.

10. The meeting adjourned at 12:45 p.m.

Barbara L. Blauvelt

Secretary of the Faculty
