The IPFW Department of Fine Arts
2016 Study Abroad Program

The Art of Italy
June 5th -26th

In our 14th year of Study Abroad travel, the IPFW Department of Fine Arts is excited to announce its 2016 program, The Art of Italy. After flying to Rome, we will tour the city that is home to such wonders as the Colosseum and Forum, the Vatican Museum with its Sistine Chapel, and the Borghese Palace, full of beautiful sculptures by Bernini and paintings by Caravaggio. Outside of Rome, we will visit the ancient Roman site of Ostia Antica; on another day we will journey to the unique hill town of Orvieto, site of one of the most beautiful cathedrals in Italy and the evocative frescos of Luca Signorelli. We will next stay in Venice, one of the most unique cities in the world and a UNESCO World Heritage site. While there, we will tour the Doge’s Palace and the Academia Museum which displays paintings by such masters as Veronese and Giorgione. From Venice we will travel to Padua and view the ground breaking frescos of Giotto in the Arena Chapel as well as visit the pilgrimage church of Saint Anthony. Lastly, while residing in Florence, travelers will understand why this city was the epicenter of the Italian Renaissance. Art venues will include the Uffizi Museum holding paintings such as Botticelli’s Birth of Venus, the Academia Museum with Michelangelo’s David, and the impressive Pitti Palace and Gardens. From Florence we will travel to Siena, one of the most authentic medieval towns in Europe. Later in the trip we will travel to the towns of Pisa to visit its Campanile or ‘Leaning Tower’. Returning to Florence from Pisa we will stop in Lucca, a city full of history and charm. This is guaranteed to be an amazing art and cultural adventure!

Travel Leaders

The trip will be led by two IPFW Department of Fine Arts professors, Christopher Ganz and Dana Goodman. Any questions concerning the itinerary of the trip should be directed to Professor Goodman who can be contacted at goodmand@ipfw.edu or by calling 260-481-6009.
Donatello’s groundbreaking 15th century bronze David in the Bargello Museum in Florence. A marvel to behold!
Eligibility
The IPFW study abroad program The Art of Italy is open to anyone 18 years of age or older unaccompanied by an adult. Anyone under 18 years of age must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Community members are welcome as well as IPFW students in any major. Students are encouraged to take a three credit hour class during the trip, but it is not required. For non-art majors, several of our classes work within General Education Category A or B. (see below). The trip is limited to 8 travelers.

Transportation
As part of the trip, travelers will receive transfers from the Rome airport to the center of the city as well as a Roma Pass, good for subway, bus, and local light rail transportation. While in Venice they will have vaporetto (water taxi) tickets to come and go on Venice’s water ways. Land travel between Rome, Venice, and Florence will be on Eurostar high-speed rail. We will travel by local rail lines to Orvieto, Padua, Pisa, Lucca, and Siena. A taxi transfer to the Florence airport at the end of the trip is provided.

Accommodations
Housing will be double occupancy with private bath in hotels run by non-profit religious orders. All accommodations are in good locations within each city, and will provide travelers with easy access to public transportation, central points of interest and the train stations.

Meals
All breakfasts and at least four evening meals are included on the trip.

Class Credit
Travelers can acquire three credits hours of study on the trip through the classes listed below:

Art Majors
FINA H495 Reading and Research in Art History
FINA P495 Independent Study in Fine Arts (drawing).
Non-Art Majors
FINA H101 Art Appreciation (General Education Category A or B)
FINA N108 Introduction to Drawing for Non-Art Majors (General Education Category A or B)
FINA H101 and FINA N108 cannot be used as a General Education credit for Department of Fine Arts majors or IPFW students receiving the department’s Fine Arts minor.
Department of Fine Arts majors:
Can use H495 as an advanced art history credit or as part of the Art History Minor.
Can use P495 as an advanced studio credit.
H495 and P495 can be used by IPFW students as part of the Fine Arts minor. H495 can be used for graduate credit.

Travel Costs*

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>For-Credit Traveler</th>
<th>Non-Credit Traveler</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>$5,440 (includes IPFW tuition)</td>
<td>$5,129</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

*The trip cost is based on 8 participants. The price may increase if there are less than 8 paid participants. Costs reflect round-trip airfare from Chicago.

Financial Help
Students can receive financial help in several ways. The Office of International Education can help you apply for the IPFW Study Abroad Scholarship ($300-$500) and possibly lead you other means that could help with travel costs. Contact Meg Underwood in Walb Union 145, 260-481-6034. iss@ipfw.edu

Students are eligible to apply for a Summer Research Grant through the Office of Research, Engagement, and Sponsored Programs. Contact Kettler Hall, Room 252, 260-481-4101 resp@ipfw.edu

For majors in art, theater and music within the College of Visual and Performing Arts, the Dean’s Office of the College has offered financial support for Study Abroad travel. Contact Gary Lanier in the Visual Arts Building, Room 102, 260-481-6707. lanier@ipfw.edu
Costs Include
- Round trip airfare from Fort Wayne
- Double occupancy room with private bath
- Breakfast each day
- Four evening meals
- Transfers to and from airports and hotels in Italy
- Transportation in Italy between designated cities
- Bus/tram/subway tickets in Rome
- Valporetto (water taxi) tickets in Venice
- Entry fees into 20+ art venues
- Purdue University insurance
- Dropbox information folder
- Travel Guide

Cost Does Not Include*
- Meals not listed
- Spending money
- Additional travel and entry fees beyond those scheduled in the itinerary
*Travelers typically budget $400-$600 for meals and spending money

Payment Procedure
All payments must be made through IPFW’s Division of Continuing Studies in Kettler Hall Room 139. Credit or Debit cards are accepted for payments.

Payment schedule
January 19, 2016   $500 deposit
March 14, 2016    Balance of payment due

If you have any questions about payments or your account, contact Beth Iserman in the Division of Continuing Studies, at 260-481-6627 or at isermanb@ipfw.edu

The amazing Pantheon in Rome, the best preserved building of the ancient Roman Empire.
Drawing by professor Christopher Ganz of GianLorenzo Bernini’s marble David, Borghese Gallery, Rome.
The Art of Italy Itinerary

June 5th
Fly from Chicago to Rome

June 6th  Arrive in Rome
We will transfer from the airport to our accommodation. A short orientation of Rome will be conducted prior to our evening meal.

June 7th-13th Rome
While in Rome we will visit the Colosseum and Forum, the Capitoline Museum, Vatican City including the Vatican Museums, St. Peter’s Cathedral, and the Sistine Chapel, as well as the Borghese Gallery. In Rome we will also see many additional historical sites and churches; on separate adventures we will travel to the ancient site of Ostia Antica and the town of Orvieto.

June 14th  Train from Rome to Venice
We will board a Eurostar high-speed train for our trip to Venice.

June 14th -18th Venice
While in Venice we will tour the Doge’s Palace and the Academia Museum. In addition we will visit the churches of Saints Paul and John (SS. Paolo e Giovanni) and the Santa Maria Frari delle Gloriosa. On a trip from Venice to Padua we will see the frescos of Giotto’s Arena Chapel and visit the pilgrimage church of Saint Anthony.

June 19th  Train from Venice to Florence
We will board a Eurostar high-speed train for our trip to Florence

June 19th -25th Florence
Our stay in Florence will include visits to the Uffizi, the Bargello, the Duomo, and Academia museums. We will also enter the Pitti Palace and its magnificent gardens as well as the Medici Chapel of San Lorenzo church. We have two side trips planned, one to the beautiful town of Siena, another a one-day trip to Pisa and Lucca. Near the last days of our visit to Florence, we will be part of the Festival of St. John, one of Tuscany’s great pageants culminating with a fantastic fireworks display over the Arno river.

June 26th
Fly from Florence to Chicago
Come With Us!

It Will Be the Adventure of a Lifetime!

Travelers caught in the spirit of the church of St. Paul Outside the Walls, Rome.

Michelangelo’s figure of Night, Medici Chapel, Florence.

Statue of the ancient Shewolf, Capitoline Museum, Rome

Shad and Paige in front of Orvieto Cathedral, Orvieto