Plan now to join your colleagues at the

Summer Writing and Project Development Institute

May 12-13, 2015

What is it?

- Two solid days you devote to writing
- An opportunity to receive immediate feedback from writing mentors
- Receive expert advice about journal impact, IRB, developing your scholarship portfolio

Who is it for?

- Anyone who is writing or wants to write for publication on any subject
- Anyone who has a scholarly writing project in any stage of development

What participants say about what they accomplished

- “My mentor and I completed a co-authored paper that we began at the Institute ... It has been submitted to a journal, and we are waiting to hear back. We have kept in touch about additional articles that we would like to co-author in the future.”

- “I completed a literature review and started a draft of Chapter 1 or my book.”

- “I submitted a manuscript for publication that I worked on during the Institute. I have revised and re-submitted to the editor.”

- “I found the Institute to be incredibly valuable as a new tenure-track faculty member. What is most useful is to have a mentor and to have two days carved out for only writing.”

Submit your proposal

- Under “What’s New” at ipfw.edu/celt

Organized by CELT, CASTLE, and the Helmke Library