

THE HOLLANDER SCHOLARSHIP
2004 APPLICATION FORM

The Hollander Scholarship is given by the Department of English and Linguistics to an IPFW student who has demonstrated strength in technical, business, or professional writing. The $375 scholarship will be awarded to a student who meets the following criteria:

- is an undergraduate student in any program at IPFW (not restricted to English majors);
- is enrolled in a four-year undergraduate program and will have achieved junior or senior standing by the time of the award;
- has attained at least a 3.25 GPA; and
- has demonstrated the ability to write well in non-literary, non-academic contexts such as technical, business, or professional writing.

To apply for the scholarship, please complete and submit to the Department of English and Linguistics the completed application form, including applicant information, written statement, supporting documents, and a letter of recommendation from an IPFW professor.

RECOMMENDATION FOR THE HOLLANDER SCHOLARSHIP

Name of Applicant: _____

The above-named student is applying for The Hollander Scholarship, an award given by the Department of English and Linguistics in recognition of an undergraduate's accomplishments in technical, business, or professional writing. The scholarship will be awarded to a student who meets the following criteria:

- is an undergraduate student in any program at IPFW (not restricted to English majors);
- is enrolled in a four-year undergraduate program and will have achieved junior or senior standing by the time of the award;
- has attained at least a 3.25 GPA; and
- has demonstrated the ability to write well in non-literary, non-academic contexts such as technical, business, or professional writing.

The scholarship committee is interested in knowing the basis upon which you recommend the applicant as a recipient of The Hollander Scholarship. Please tell us what you know of the student's written work at IPFW. Send your letter of recommendation, attached to this form, through Campus Mail or U.S. mail no later than February 24, 2004.
