Mission Statement
The Dean of Students Diplomats educate peers about different topics and policies of the IPFW community. The program promotes academic integrity, student rights, responsibilities and conduct, ethics, responsible freedom, conflict resolution and provides support and guidance for personal topics, such as sexual assault and discrimination.

Expectations

• Adhere to the Rules and Requirements of Dean of Students Diplomats.
• Commit to one-year appointment.
• Participate in all required training for Dean of Students Diplomats.
• Maintain good personal and academic conduct.
• Maintain, an overall GPA of 3.0 or higher.
• Attend all monthly meetings.

Responsibilities

Educate fellow students by developing and facilitating programs for students that may include, but are not limited to:

• Academic Integrity
• Conflict Resolution
• Office of the Dean of Students overview
• Responding to Sexual Violence

• Assist with research and data collection.
• Other responsibilities as assigned.

Benefits

• Coordinate and facilitate educational campus programs
• Develop and learn public speaking skills
• Increased understanding of policies and practices within higher educational settings
• Learn how to resolve conflicts and develop negotiation skills
• Learn what it takes to work with, and serve others, in a leadership role
• Network and make connections throughout the campus community