Summer Bridge Program

Summer Bridge Provides Tools for Success

▶ Study Environment:

Living in IPFW Student Housing provides you with a safe place to interact and study with your peers. You'll also receive three meals a day.

What Is Summer Bridge?

Bridging the gap between high school and college can be an enormous leap. The IPFW Summer Bridge Program is a six-week program that makes this transition easier while providing you with a summer experience like no other. The program also helps you by assisting with the IPFW admission process, removing financial barriers, increasing your awareness of community services, and designing academic programs especially for you.

You'll get a jump start by:

- ▶ Taking two courses for college credit (six credits total)
- ▶ Living in the IPFW Student Housing on the Waterfield Campus
- ▶ Participating in fun social and cultural activities

Plus, it's FREE!
Apply to IPFW and Summer Bridge today.

▶ Assistance with filing for financial aid:

You'll receive assistance to ensure your financial aid will be processed and ready for you in the fall.

▶ Academic advising:

Throughout the summer, IPFW staff will prepare you for fall semester class registration.

▶ Academic Student Achievement Program (ASAP):

After you complete the Summer Bridge Program, IPFW will continue to work with you through ASAP to monitor your progress.
