

IPFW is concerned about the safety and welfare of all campus members and guests and is committed to promoting a safe and secure environment. Although we have been fortunate in not experiencing a significant number of serious crimes, the potential for such incidents always exists. To prevent these crimes from happening, Police and Safety needs the help of all students, staff, and faculty. Please report all suspicious activity immediately. Don't leave your valuables unattended. Make sure all office doors are locked. With your help we can make a difference.

IPFW Police and Safety

The Police and Safety office is located in the Physical Plant (west of Classroom-Medical Building) and is staffed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. The staff consists of 15 police officers, 2 safety officers, and 4 clerk/dispatchers. Under state law, police officers possess full police powers including the powers of arrest (IC-20-12-3.5) on all property owned or occupied by the university. Police and Safety works closely with local law enforcement agencies and solicits information on criminal activity of students at off-campus locations. Authorized through agreement with the City of Fort Wayne, Police and Safety has secondary jurisdiction throughout the city. Its mission is to protect and serve the campus community by providing a safe environment through enforcement, service, and education.

Some of the services available through Police and Safety are

- jump starts for stranded motorists;
- unlock service for individuals who have locked their keys in their cars;
- an escort service available 24 hours a day for students and staff;
- a campus-wide emergency telephone system monitored 24 hours a day;
- free engraving of social security or identification numbers on personal property;
- a lost-and-found department;
- crime prevention lectures and seminars to new staff and students. Call Police and Safety for more information.
- RAD-Rape Aggression Defense (call 16626 for information)

Emergency Telephones

Call Police and Safety at 16911 from any campus telephone, or use any of the emergency telephones on campus. Emergency telephones can be activated by pushing the button on the telephone. After pushing the button, you will hear a ring and the Police and Safety dispatcher will answer. Advise the dispatcher of the emergency. The phone line remains connected for five minutes so dispatchers can monitor activities in the area. These phones are very sensitive and pick up voices from as far away as 20 feet. Please restrict the use of the emergency phones to emergencies only. Dispatchers are available 24 hours a day to respond to emergency calls.

For criminal reports, Police and Safety may be contacted at 16827 or 16900. You may also stop by the office which is staffed 24 hours a day. All criminal reports will be investigated as soon as possible.

Free on-campus telephones are located in the lobbies and corridors of all campus buildings. These telephones can be used to contact the university police for routine services such as jump starts and vehicle unlocks. For these routine services, call the office at 16827 or 16900.

Crime Reporting

Numerous efforts are made to advise members of the campus community on a timely basis about campus crime and crime-related problems. These efforts include

- Quarterly and annual crime reports: Annual as well as quarterly reports of crime-related information are compiled, published, and widely distributed;
- Student newspaper: The student newspaper, The Communicator, prints news briefs on criminal activities and special notices when needed;
- Special alerts: When circumstances warrant, special printed crime alerts are prepared and distributed throughout the campus.

Weapons Possession

Firearms are strictly forbidden on the campus unless authorized. Violators are subject to college discipline as well as criminal sanctions.

For a complete listing of IPFW regulations, consult the Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct in the Student Handbook. Copies are available in the dean of students office, Walb 113, 481-6601.

Drug and Alcohol Policy

IPFW regulations state that the use, possession, or distribution of narcotics or controlled drugs is prohibited, except as expressly permitted by the laws of the state of Indiana. IPFW regulations prohibit the possession or use of alcoholic beverages in or on IPFW property, regardless of the person's age. Policies are available for inspection at the following locations: library, vice chancellor's office, dean of students office, and the university police department.

Violators of alcohol and drug laws will be referred to the dean of students for administrative action or arrested on criminal charges.

Rape and Sexual Assault

A variety of services are available to students from the offices of the dean of students, Center for Women and Returning Adults, student affairs, and affirmative action. Services include victim assistance, confidential counseling about personal concerns, and information about university resources.

Matters related to student conduct are the responsibility of the dean of students office. Established due process procedures are described in the Student Handbook under the Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct.

In cases involving a student accused of violating any regulation governing student conduct, disciplinary action may be initiated. Such actions follow the established due process procedures as described in the Student Handbook under the Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct.

When university disciplinary hearings are held concerning alleged sexual assault, the student and student's accuser are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during the hearing, and both the student and the student's accuser shall be informed of the outcome of the disciplinary proceedings.

Sanctions the university may impose in cases involving sex offenses include reprimand and warning, disciplinary probation, restitution, participation in a specific program, provision of a specific service, suspension, and expulsion.

The best defenses against rape and sexual assault are alertness and awareness. At all times, including dating situations, you should

- let a friend or roommate know whom you will be with, where you will be, and when you expect to return; leave your address and phone number;
- not let peer pressure influence the amount of alcohol you drink; a study at another Big Ten university showed that 80 percent of men and 70 percent of women involved in sexual assaults had been drinking;
- trust your feelings and instincts; if you feel threatened, there's probably a good reason; get away fast;
- report any assault or threat of assault to Police and Safety and the dean of students office immediately.

In selecting dating partners, beware of a person who

- ignores your wishes;
- becomes angry or hostile when you say "NO";
- tries to make you feel guilty when you say "NO";
- ignores your personal space boundaries;

- is quick to show anger or aggression;
- is excessively jealous or possessive;
- doesn't listen to what you say;
- forces you to constantly ward off advances;
- expresses hostile feelings about women in general.

Your first few dates with any individual should be in public places. Always have an alternative way home.

Rape Victims

If you are the victim of a rape, get to a safe place as soon as you can. Then you should

- try to preserve all physical evidence; do not bathe, douche, use the toilet, or change clothing;
- notify the police—even if you are unsure about filing charges;
- get medical attention as soon as possible; the police will assist you with this;
- call a close friend, counselor, or other trusted person who can be with you during your interview with the police;
- use the victim-assistance services of campus and/or community agencies, including the dean of students office, Center for Women and Returning Adults, and Fort Wayne Women's Bureau-Rape Crisis Hotline (426-7273).

Security of Campus Facilities

Most buildings are normally open from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. Sunday. Employees have been instructed to immediately report any suspicious situations and not to admit strangers into buildings and/or offices.

Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to report lock deficiencies and inadequate lighting on walkways or trees and shrubberies that are a safety/security concern to the Physical Plant or Police and Safety.
